Narberth's New Station Opens Next Tuesday---It's Unique---And Offensive

Why Does Pennsylvania R. R. Put Best-Patronized Station in the Suburbs, in the DOG HOUSE?

PERHAPS ALL A NIGHTMARE

Narberth's antiquated station on the north side of the railroad tracks will be vacated by Station Master A. E. Burgstesser next Tuesday, when between 10 A. M. and noon he will move to new quarters on the south side.

Strongly requested two years ago by Chester P. Cook, Mrs. Suzanne Joret Gill and OUR TOWN's present editor, on behalf of the Narberth Business Council, the new building was promised as soon as conditions would permit its construction. Merion Station had been improved, and it was said, off the record, that Nar-berth, next on the line, would be next in line.

So the new station will be occupied Tuesday.

Stunned commuters are studying it now, aghast; wondering if Narberth, a unique borough, is really entitled to a station that is too, too unique.

A small waiting room, too dingy for public use except in coldest weather, has been divided into two parts. One, with a new small stove, is for the station master and his assistants, for the handling of train communications and such, and the sale of tickets. From this space into the other half of the small room, a big stove has been moved, and polished up, to make its new abode, which is about the size of a Great Dane's house, cozy and warm.

But that is not all that is provided for the comfort of the traveling pub-

From Bad to Worse —

This old north-side station will be vacated Tuesday in favor of Narberth's long-anticipated new station on the south side of the tracks—the Main Line's Phone Booth Station—which will seat six commuters comfortably, if they are thin.

Sports Sextet Due Tuesday at Men's Night of Women's Community Club

Jimmy Dykes, Harvey Harman, Rusty Callow, Tommy Loughran, Bill Anderson and Jimmy D'Angelo are a sextet of speakers that will bring out at least 100 of the husbands of the Women's Community Club of Narberth to their Men's Night program, 8.30 P. M., Tuesday, in the Community Building. The Keystone Quartet, courtesy of the Pennsylvania Railroad, will sing.

It will be Sportsmen's Night and each will represent his own sport. Jimmy Dykes, manager of the Chicago White Sox, former star of the Athletics and of the Main Line Baseball Club, will discuss baseball. Harvey Harman and Rusty Callow, head coaches at the University of Pennsylvania respectively of football and rowing, will explain how they train their teams. Bill Anderson, basketball coach at Lower Merion High School, will give the high school angle.

Penn Valley Group Protests Incinerator

Experts Testify Township Improvement Would Not Constitute Nuisance

Much testimony was given before Judge Knight at Norristown this mid-week in the effort of a group of Penn Valley residents to prevent locating Lower Merion's incinerator in West Manayunk.

Wednesday the judge denied a motion of W. Logan MacCoy, head of counsel for the township, who had asked dismissal of the injunction petition.

William Knatz, Upper Darby real estate man, earlier had testified that smoke and odors from the Philadelphia incinerator had prevented sales of several properties.

In contrast the previous afternoon three sanitation experts swore that incinerators in their territories do not constitute nuisances. They were Richard C. Beckett, State sanitary engineer in Delaware; Julius J. Dworschak, street superintendent of Pelham Manor, N. Y., and Lee Campbell, city engineer of Hackensack, N. J.

The complainants, who entered their protest independently after the Penn Valley Association decided to drop the matter, included Percival Roberts, Jr., Guy Croyle, H. W. Madara, Robert J. Nash, Mrs. Sarah L. Bussinger, Mrs. Jonathan Jones, John Brownback and C. Brooke Jones, township commissioner from the Pencoyd (West Manayunk) district.

They held the present dump site, where the incinerator would be placed, is a nuisance and affirmed that the new equipment also would depreciate

Flynn at D. A. R.

Assistant D. A., Narberth Thespian,
Will Speak at Luncheon
Monday

JOHN E. FLYNN

John E. Flynn, Assistant District Attorney of Montgomery County, will speak at the Reciprocity Luncheon to be given by the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter, D. A. R., at 1 P. M. Monday, in the American Legion Room of the Community Building.

Mr. Flynn, member of the law firm of Smilie and Bean, is president of the Young Lawyers Club of Montgomery County. He is a prominent member of the Narberth Players and has appeared with the Plays and Players, Philadelphia. Since his marriage in February he has resided in Narberth.

Other prominent speakers will be Mrs. Harper D. Sheppard, State Regent, and Mrs. Ira Springer, Vice Regent.

Soloist of the afternoon will be Mrs. Cletus Senft. Her accompanist will be Mrs. Mildred Bailey. Mrs. C. Arley Farmer is in charge of the luncheon.

Howard C. Fritsch

Death Came Suddenly. Magistrate
Served 18 Years, Fearless and Faithful

Scores of grieving friends attended the home funeral Sunday of Howard Calvin Fritsch, 219 North Wynnewood road, Narberth, who died in Jefferson Hospital last Thursday. Interment was at Tamaqua, where he was born 60 years ago.

He lived in Narberth 30 years and was magistrate for 18, losing the Republican nomination in September only when he declined to campaign.

As a magistrate he was sympathetic and tolerant to unwitting offenders, but stern and just to others. That he could not be "fixed" on drunken driving cases, regardless of political pressure, was shown within two weeks of his death, when he insisted on sending his record of a hearing to Norristown for trial, despite vigorous intercession by Philadelphia politicians.

Quiet, retiring, he had a good conception of the citizen's duty to the community. When need arose for his services, he rendered them fearlessly and faithfully. In him the borough lost one of its finest men.

He was a member and trustee of the Merion Friends' Meeting; of the Narberth School Board meets next Tuesday.

Borough Council Opposes Labor Boost for Ash and Trash Removal

Narberth's seven ash-and-rubbish-removing laborers are in danger of losing their jobs to contractors as a result of action taken by Borough Council Monday night on a petition they presented October 6. They sought restoration of the 1929 pay scale (drivers, 64c an hour; laborers, 56c). The present pay is 56c and 50c. They also want shorter hours, double-time pay for Sunday work when there is any, and pay for sick leave, regular pay for working on the six national holidays, and the hiring of two more men during the winter season.

Borough authorities, estimating the demands would cost taxpayers $82 extra per week for 30 weeks of the year, decided to approve the following report and to advertise for bids (per notice elsewhere in this issue):

Council Approves

Range for Community Building,
Oil Burner Ordinance;
Hears Reports

To serve as many as 125 at a time, as is often done, the Women's Community Club and Girl Scout room of the Community Building, in Narberth, gets a big gas range with six burners and three ovens, costing $215.88. It was approved by Borough Council at its meeting Monday. And contracts were awarded to Donald Heckel and Wilbur Muffett, painting the library's ceiling and top walls, $35, and Arthur L. Cooke, plastering them, $32.

Passed on first reading was an ordinance governing installation and storage of oil burners and oil tanks, of which already there are 344 among the borough's 1210 buildings.

Received without comment was a request from the Narberth Library for $2500 for 1938—a $500 increase.

And R. A. Cabrey's Ball Club report showing collections at games of $2,393.68, donations of $226.15, and Atlantic City game proceeds of $50.75. Disbursements included $627.79 to visiting teams, $1575.50 to local players for expenses, $277.75 to umpires, $104.60 for upkeep of grounds, $238.81 for equipment, etc. Season's deficit, $340.03.

Building permits for October: Five $250 garages in J. M. O'Connor's operation, Berkeley road and Sabine avenue; $350 garage for John A. Patton, 506 Homewood, and alterations or repairs as follows: W. A. Graf, 828 Montgomery, $75; Mr. Rockwell, 334 Dudley, $50; Phyllis Woodrow, 204 Grayling, $450; H. A. Jacobs, 206 Forest, $300.

Budget boost of $700 was asked by the Narberth Board of Health. Total estimate for '38 is $2900, approved by the board at its meeting last week. The increase is to pay the Community Health and Civic Association, Ardmore, for a nurse's full-time services.

Eleven New Juniors

Voted in Junior Women's Community Club. Party is 18th

Eleven new members were voted upon and accepted at the Board of Directors meeting on Monday night at the home of the president, Mrs. Spencer Smith. They were: Mrs. Robert Schweinsburg, Miss Eleanor Patrick, Miss Margaret White, Mrs. S. V. Homsher, Miss Mina Rose Lyle, Miss Amelia L. Clappitt, Mrs. Dorothy Stanton, Mrs. Eleanor Watts, Mrs. W. A. Spear, Mrs. Aubrey J. Pettus, and Mrs. R. G. Stannard. A total of 33 new members have, thus far, been received into the club this season. The chairman of the Membership Committee, Mrs. John H. Jefferis, Jr., Arlington road, Penn Valley, will be glad to be informed of any additional names of residents desirous of applying for membership.

The next stated meeting of the juniors, November 18, in the Community Building, will take the form of a party in honor of the new members. The Membership Committee and the Board of Directors are acting as co-hostesses. A delightful evening's program is promised.

Tuesday night, the Dance Committee, with Miss Bunny Minick, chairman, met at Miss Marjory Hoffman's Studio to formulate plans for a New Year's Eve dance to be held at the

American Legion Award Goes to Tax Collector Edwin P. Dold

Legion's Friend

recipient of the American Legion
Award—Narberth's most distinguished citizen of the year.

Players Enjoy "Moonshine"

Over one hundred members attended the regular monthly meeting of the Narberth Players Tuesday evening at Elm Hall. They were amply repaid by an evening of fine entertainment, which opened with several fine numbers by Aimee Jane Swan, pianist. This was followed by a one-act play "Moonshine" directed by Fay Fetterolf. Although a play of but two characters, the interest was exceptionally well sustained by William Farmer and William Clippsham.

Following this fine performance everyone participated in a "community sing" after which refreshments were served during a social hour. Many new members attended and a good time was had by all.

Narberth Branch of the W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. Clarence H. Woolmington's, 23 Narbrook Park, 2.30 P. M., Monday.

Given for Courage, Generosity and Support, Especially of War Memorial

AT BANQUET THURSDAY

Last night (Thursday) the American Legion of Narberth held its annual banquet in the Community Building. Nearby, at the playground's corner, stands the cannon whose acquisition by the Legion Post stirred opposition of citizens who objected to the display of armament, even for patriotic reasons.

Staunch defender of the Legion was Edwin P. Dold, Parkview Apartments, who has just been re-elected tax collector despite, or perhaps because of, his courage. To him went the Legion Award for his services to Legion and community. Approved by Department Headquarters in Washington and endorsed by district officers of the Legion, the engraved cer-

Fox Shoot Sunday; Rod and Gun Films Wednesday

The Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club will hold a .22 rifle shoot, 1 to 4.30 P. M., Sunday, at George Floyd's farm, in Penn Valley. The running fox target will be used—ingenious painted contraption on a pulley, at a range of 50 yards.

Wednesday at 8 P. M., in the Community Building in Narberth, Dr. Dennis Zimmerman, noted sportsman, will show pictures of hunting and fishing in the wilds of Canada, and give a talk of his experiences.

John A. Miller, the club's president, won the prize in a Philadelphia store's fishing contest, for the largest brook trout in the Eastern Division, when he caught, the season's opening day, a trout 17½ inches long, 11½ inches girth, weight three pounds. And last week, with Dr. A. J. Denman and six others, he brought back an eight-point deer.

Library Head and Librarian Will Address Parents-Teachers Monday

The Narberth Parents-Teachers Association will meet Monday evening in the Narberth School Auditorium at 7.45 instead of 8 o'clock, due to the length of the program.

Book awards for the summer travel club will be made by Miss Clara E. Follette, Narberth librarian, and the Rev. R. E. Keighton, president of the Board of Trustees of the Library, and pastor of the Baptist Church of the Evangel, will talk on "Reading for Profit and Pleasure."

The invocation will be given by the Rev. W. Vernon Middleton, pastor of the Narberth Methodist Church. Kathryn Bailey will play Strauss' "Blue Danube," an arrangement by Wekerling.

Have you joined the P. T. A.? This is the last chance this year, for on Monday evening the Membership Committee will close its drive. Every father, mother, and citizen interested in the educational progress of children should be enrolled. The Membership Committee consists of the mothers of the enrolled students. Teachers also will be glad to accept the membership of fifty cents for one year from you. The school's various grades are competing for highest memberships.

Mulieres Elect

Mrs. W. J. Ezickson, President, to Succeed Mrs. Mueller
January 1

Mrs. W. J. Ezickson, South Narberth avenue, was elected president of the Mulieres of the Narberth Fire Company on Monday. She has been first vice-president for two years. Other officers elected were Mrs. Lloyd B. Edgerton, first vice-president; Mrs. Charles E. Harnden, second vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth M. Bovee, secretary; Mrs. A. L. Altemus, treasurer; two directors, Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller and Mrs. John E. Wetzell.

Mrs. Mueller, the retiring president, will serve until January 1. A motion was passed that she be made honorary president.

Mrs. Mueller appointed Mrs. Clifford Bates and Mrs. Frank X. Purcell, auditors of the treasurer's books. She also named Mrs. Albert H. Nulty as chairman of the Christmas party to be held December 13 in Elm Hall, for members only.

Other committee members are Mrs. Ezickson, Mrs. C. A. Hammer, Mrs. A. E. Burgstesser, Mrs. Harry Hollar, Mrs. H. F. Darnes, Mrs. George Gillespie, Mrs. C. Nelson Rowley, Mrs. Frank C. Stiefel, Mrs. J. D. Rent-schler, Mrs. Howard Cotter, Mrs. R. Lees, Mrs. J. Ben Taylor, Mrs. Walter R. O'Sullivan, Mrs. William Evans and Mrs. George Mickley.

Local Phone Girls Say
32,000 "Hello's" a Day

Every day about 32,000 phone calls are handled by the Cynwyd Exchange, according to J. Cootenbach, Jr., Bell Telephone speaker at Tuesday's Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club luncheon. The exchange includes Cynwyd, Merion and Narberth.

He showed how new inventions are improving transmission facilities and paving the way for television. Emerging from the experimental stage is a tube on the order of radio's, to be connected in place of telephone wires.

Showing the magnitude of the public utility's service, the speaker declared that of thirty-four million telephones in world use, eighteen million are in the United States, including 1,200,000 in this state. On the entire Main Line, 350 Bell Telephone employees give service for 25,000 phones, handling 136,000 calls a day.

"NEW" NARBERTH STATION

lic, who in Narberth buy more tickets—thus far, at least—than in any other station in all Philadelphia's suburbs. For Narberth's commuters, who on Saturday, October 30, bought 500 full-fare tickets to Philadelphia alone, not counting commutations, etc.—for these people there is provided a bench, facing the stove, which hospitably provides room for six people—provided all six are thin.

Talk of further alterations of such unparalleled magnitude would be anticlimatic, but mention should be made that a shiny strip of sheet metal, such as might well grace a country station of the '80's, has been lined behind the stove, against the mud-colored walls, which are of sturdy (which sounds and looks like dirty) wood that has stood the test of many a storm, these long years.

As for the old station, it will continue to provide space for commuters, who will be privileged to buy tickets on the south side, and then, in cold weather, to burrow under the tracks to the north side building to keep warm, and then hastily stampede back to the south side when inbound trains appear. . . . Of course, they needn't do this. . . . They can pack like sardines in the Great Dane house, or just wait in the cold and admire the magnificent new structure their money buys.

It is doubtful if the new station would be deemed fit by a self-respecting druggist for an addition to his phone booths.

Is it because Narberth has so many railroad employees for residents that it is felt the town can be treated as if it were a West Manayunk village of one-twentieth the size? Has the borough been consigned to the dog house because building the station would cause a reduction in salary of tens of thousands of employees, throwing countless men out of work, and halting vast electrification projects? After all, we never asked for a million-dollar structure, to compare with the 30th Street Station. . . . Fess up—railroad officials, Narberth and elsewhere. . . . Isn't it all a joke? When do we get that new station?

Light's Out

Rather than hide our light under a bushel, we've installed a street lamp on top of one, in front of the old bank building, Haverford avenue at Narberth. True, it's only a 4th basket, but then, the light's only a little temporary one.

The regular post was bowled over when two cars collided at the intersection, last Friday night.

Wouldn't it be a good idea, borough fathers (referring to Town Council) to consider seriously a regular traffic light? Or at least an amber blinker. Those buttons in the middle of the street never did help motorists in any respect except to enlarge their profane vocabulary. It's a bad corner, especially when winter's snow gets around to coating the two hills involved. And there will be more motorists in Narberth than ever before, unless commuters are soon told a replacement is coming for their "new" half-pint station.

Early—Please!

Contributors are requested, whenever possible, to turn in news early, to save the editor a headache Wednesday and give the linotypers a break. Your co-operation in that and other respects this week was pretty nearly perfect. Thank you!

Wynnewood Scout Troop

November fifth, the Wynnewood Troop participated in the Valley Forge Council "Scout O-Rama," at Swarthmore College Field House. Although the weather was against us a crowd of over three thousand was present. Among the well-known scout leaders were "Jack" Foster, Mr. French, Secretary of Agriculture of Pennsylvania, and Rex Gary, scout executive.

On Saturday, the members of the troop helped the Narberth Presbyterian Church by distributing circulars.

Main Lines

Princess Cantacuzene will describe "Washington Today — Political Trends" at the Hannah Penn House, 3 P. M., Monday, for the Republican Women of Pennsylvania. At the tea table, Mrs. Norman Russell and Mrs. Edward Blahon.

Max Redlich discussed "Pre-Inflation German Money" at yesterday's Ardmore Rotary luncheon at Whitehall, Haverford.

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, author, philosopher and lecturer, will talk on "The Tragedy of Spain," at Rosemont College, Monday at 8 P. M. The Marquesa de Cienfuegos, American wife of a Spanish nobleman, who spent 43 days in a Spanish prison, also will tell of her experiences.

A talk on "Creative Imagination in Relation to Life" will be given by Harriet Ayer Seymour, modern music education pioneer, at the Bryn Mawr Art Center, Polo avenue and Haverford road, this Friday at 8.30 P. M.

Public hearings on the General 44-hour Law, which becomes effective December 1, will be held at Harrisburg, from this Friday until November 19, according to Ralph M. Bashore, Secretary of the Department of Labor and Industry.

On Tuesday the Federal Government starts its National Census of Unemployment. The Post Office will send Unemployment Census Cards to every home, with all filled-out cards to be in the mail by midnight November 20 in order to be counted.

The Julian B. Slevin Special Award for Summer Art Work was won by Robert Lippincott, Haverford, it is announced by Academy of the Fine Arts, Philadelphia.

Related Mischief Night pranksters have removed the small "S. S. Ewing" sign from the Ewing premises in Bryn Mawr. The owners would appreciate its return.

Speaking before the Main Line Kiwanis Club, Congressman J. William Ditter urged as a program of business relief: That the President change his attitude toward business leaders especially in regard to taxation; that a sound labor policy be adopted; that a sound fiscal policy be established.

Outnumbered Sophomores of Haverford College decided the annual tussle with the Frosh "Rhines" would not be held this year. Monday night the "Rhines" decided otherwise. Results of the battle, waged with paper bags filled with water and ammonia bombs, among other weapons, were a few bruised bodies, damage to windows and doors in South Barclay and Merion halls.

Six boys, arrested for shooting street lights in Haverford, were released upon promising to pay the Philadelphia Electric Company for the damage and upon contributing $3.50 costs each to Magistrate Franklin P. Kromer.

Mrs. John B. Thayer, Haverford, is chairman of the Women's Board of the Bryn Mawr Hospital. Other officers announced are Mrs. Livingston L. Biddle, Bryn Mawr, and Mrs. M. Withington Clement, Rosemont, vice chairmen; Mrs. J. Howard Pew, Ardmore, secretary; Mrs. William R. Mooney, Bryn Mawr, treasurer.

HOWARD C. FRITSCH

County Magistrates' Association; of Tamaqua's Royal Arch Masonic Chapter; of Williamsport Consistory; and past commander of Corinthian Chasseur Commandery, No. 53, Knights Templar.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mabel Buckman Fritsch, daughter, Anna Mabel, and son, Howard Calvin, Jr.

The family of Howard C. Fritsch acknowledges with sincere gratitude the expressions of friendly sympathy which have been extended to them by the citizens of Narberth.

MRS. SUSAN McCaughey

Solemn requiem mass was celebrated Monday at St. Margaret's for Mrs. Susan J. McCaughey, who died of a stroke early Thursday at Mrs. Mary Finn's, 208 Iona, where she had lived the past year. Her son, Joseph C. McCaughey, is her only relative. Many friends attended the ceremony Monday and the wake Sunday.

That's My Story

Mighty glad so many of you said you liked last week's paper. Lots of new readers, as a result. Added 75 good families to the mail list so far! . . . Among features that are resuming this week are "Around Our Town," begun by Anita Jones a couple of summers ago; and "Business Bits;" and a brand new column that no book-lover should miss: "The Book Shelf." Let's hear what you think of these and other items in the paper. And please tell advertisers, old and new, that you notice what's said by and about them—will you? Thanks!

THE EDITOR.

Business Bits

Quite frequently Main Liners with $500 Swiss watches look up H. F. Stelzer, the watchmaker-jeweler, at 232 Bala avenue, because the Cynwyd man is one of the few in this section who can be trusted with fine work like that. He's had 17 years' experience, in Germany and this country; recently with Riggs and Brother. How's your watch?

Narberth sports a few Packards, but auto dealers don't think—so far—that the borough's the place for big cars. Your editor tried last week-end, in his optimistic way, to sell a Lincoln ad to Leves-Saburn, the Ford dealers in Cynwyd. In the office, incidentally, was something new in desk gadgets that you might like to know about. It's a swanky radio, lamp, clock and fountain pen, all in one piece. . . . Well, not the pen. . . . Air-ite is the name, in case you want Walt Case or George Albert to order you one for Christmas.

Gordon Wunder, who plans to move December 1 from Forest avenue, says if he ever finds anything interesting to read in OUR TOWN, he'll advertise. Wonder if Wunder will read this.

Around Our Town

Fifteen per cent of us are night blind and don't realize it, according to Dr. W. J. Ezickson, Narberth, who, with Dr. J. B. Feldman, exhibited last week at the N. Y. Academy of Medicine, two instruments which determine night blindness and vitamin A deficiency with which they have connected it. A normal-eyed man driving a car at 40 m. p. h. against oncoming glaring headlights will travel 30 or 40 feet, 'tis said, before his eyes adjust themselves. If he is night blind the distance he travels before adjusting himself to darkness again may be 150 to 200 feet. Dr. Ezickson wants all motorists examined periodically for night blindness, because good day vision is not a sign that the eye is able to adjust itself to sudden change—and accidents do happen.

A harvest ball will be given at the Merion Golf Club, November 24. Layton M. Schoch, of Haverford, and William A. Lilley, of Merion, are the sponsors.

Joan Barrie, known locally as Joan Boxman, the William H. Boxmans' daughter, 200 Merion avenue, is now in big time—singing at the Arcadia International in Philadelphia. She has just completed an engagement at the Anchorage, and before that was on the stage for Warners on coast to coast circuits, and at the Earle Theater in Philadelphia. Her lovely deep-toned voice is heard over WCAU Thursdays at 4.30 and WIP Fridays at 6.00.

A graduate of L. M. H. S., '37, she played the lead there in "Pirates of Penzance" and "Patience."

Russell Basler, popular post office clerk, is recovering at his home, 219 Iona, from injuries suffered when he was riding in Penn Valley last Sunday.

Frank A. Schrepfer chose for his topic for the Knights of Columbus, Wednesday at the Lorraine Hotel, "Armistice to Armageddon." He spoke yesterday in Cynwyd at the Legion Post's new home's housewarming.

"Thin Ice" at Narberth, With "Varsity Show" Next

Sonja Henie, the "One-in-a-Million" skater, is in—or on—"Thin Ice" at the Narberth this week-end, aided by that rising new star, Tyrone Power. Fine entertainment.

Columbia's Happy Hour for children starts 1 P. M. Saturday. "Thin Ice" will follow it.

"Varsity Show" brings Walter Catlett with highbrow eyes for staging a show for a small college, Ted Healy to keep him out of the way—and Dick Powell and Waring's Pennsylvanians to make the revue a success. It's next Monday and Tuesday.

Award Night, Claire Trevor and Sally Blaine star in "One Mile from Heaven."

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Loretta Young, Warner Baxter and Virginia Bruce are worth waiting to see, in "Wife, Doctor and Nurse." And there's a Disney cartoon, "Magician Mickey."

Short at Suburban Shows How to Do "Big Apple"

No dance in years has caught the public fancy like the Big Apple, which originated in South Carolina, and has been sweeping the country like a tropical hurricane.

It is a natural and inevitable subject for a short film, and Educational Pictures has been quick to put it on the screen. Featuring the Arthur Murray "Shag" Dancers, Educational's featurette, "The Big Apple," gives an authentic presentation of the new dance in a light little story of college boys and girls.

Murray, who is perhaps the world's best known authority on dancing, recruited his dancers from the finalists in the famous Harvest Moon Ball in New York. Under the direction of this famous teacher, their "Big Apple" will be accepted as the last word in what's right in the new dance.

"The Big Apple" will be at the Suburban Theater, Ardmore, this Monday and Tuesday.

At the Egyptian

Now: "You Can't Have Everything."

Monday, Tuesday: "Thin Ice." Wednesday, Thursday: "Stella Dallas."

The Fireside

Scores of friends from Narberth and vicinity were among the hundreds who attended the testimonial dinner to Dr. O. J. Snyder, of Narberth and Woodbine avenues, at the Bellevue-Stratford, last Saturday. The occasion was the 71st birthday of Narberth's prominent citizen, who founded the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy and is former president of the American Osteopathic Association and of the Pennsylvania State Board of Osteopathic Examiners. Proceeds of the dinner and dance benefited the charitable work of the Junior Aid in nursery, children's ward, etc., of the Osteopathic Hospital, at 48th and Spruce streets.

Localities observed in an appreciative party of Helen Hayes fans on the first row of the Forrest Theater, November 3, included Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cabrey, Township Commissioner, and Mrs. John H. Jeffries, Jr., and Councilman-Elect and Mrs. Frank A. Schrepfer.

The Joseph M. Honglers returned last week to their home on Merion avenue, after a ten days' automobile trip through Western Pennsylvania, New York and Canada.

The Hugh B. Speeds, of Chestnut avenue, will have as their guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. William Pretz, of New York.

It's a girl at the Conrad Trowbridges, on South Narberth avenue. Her name is Diana and she was born at the Bryn Mawr Hospital November 3. A dozen guests attended her sister Patsy's seventh birthday party Saturday.

The Elmer Chubbs, Essex avenue, moved last week to Altoona.

The Lloyd B. Edgerton's, of Chestnut avenue, spent Tuesday in New York.

The Thomas W. Blakes' daughter, Peggy, who is a student at the West Chester State Teachers' College, returned for the week-end and had as her guest, Miss Mary Louise Smith, of Norristown. They attended the Lower Merion-Norristown game Saturday. Peggy is among the fifteen students of the college to be appointed to the Press Board of the Quadrangle.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tibbory, of the Barrie House, had as their guest over the week-end, Miss Lillian Hardee, of New York City.

The A. J. Sigels, Forrest avenue, gave a birthday dinner party Sunday in honor of their son, William A. Sigel, who with his wife, came to attend the wedding Saturday of his brother, Robert, to Betty Kriebel. Their other week-end guests were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Aiken and their daughter, Jeanette, of Lancaster; Mrs. H. H. Hilburry, of Pittsburgh, and Mr. Richard A. Sigel, of Buffalo. Mrs. George R. Richardson, of S. Narberth avenue, has just returned from ten days' stay in Altoona.

The Harry Heinigs, of Elmwood avenue, spent the week-end in Washington. Mr. Heinig's sister, Miss Grace Heinig, has left for California, where she will visit her twin sister for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts, Baird Apartments, have returned from a ten-day cruise to Cuba.

The Albert H. Rippers, Dudley avenue, had as their guests this past week, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McCullough and their daughter, Miss Jean McCullough, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sherwin, of Butler.

Mrs. Donald F. Torrey, Brookhurst avenue, accompanied by her house guest, Mrs. T. Bowie Claggett, of Prince Georges County, Md., were in Summit, N. J., for Friday and Saturday of last week, where they visited Mrs. Torrey's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Grammer.

Mrs. Philip A. Livingston, Manor road, Penn Valley, left Monday for a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. L. V. Morrissey, Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Heath, of 4 Shirley road, will hold open house starting at four o'clock Sunday in honor of their son, Larry, home on a three weeks' business trip from Bermuda, and Mrs. Heath's mother, Mrs. Harriet Heath, who arrives Saturday to spend the winter with her family. Mrs. Heath has been spending the summer at her home in St. Albans, Maine. Larry, manager of the Langton Hotel in Bermuda, will sail there November 20. His brother, Gilbert, will spend the week-end at a house party at State College, whence he graduated last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Albert entertained Mr. and Mrs. Byron Morton, of Honeybrook, last Sunday.

Peter Curran, Woodbine avenue, Narberth, will go to New York about November 25 for a motion picture screen test at Universal pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Mottern, of Kenilworth road, spent the week-end in White Plains, N. Y.

Around Our Town

Frank Salasin, of the Narberth Theater, commented favorably—as did many a reader, thank you!—on OUR TOWN's statement last week that it is time borough-dwellers cast off any sense of inferiority. He points out that judged by his experience, Narberth's level of education and discrimination is even higher than that of the rest of the Main Line. He has to pick his shows more carefully than other theaters, or his audience will walk out on him, he says. And it's a rare theater and a rare town that can get away with foreign-language films—as Narberth has. "Look at the outstanding people in our town," he says, and mentions Dr. Walter Steckbeck, Dr. LeRoy A. King, Frank Schrepfer, Kenneth L. M. Pray and other famed educators—just to name a few. . . . "Can't show Western pictures to them!"

A sight to warm your heart is Miss Buckaloo's kindergarten class at the Narberth School, playing around at 11 o'clock when it's time to go home, and making joyous early-American sounds on the sliding board and such.

Jack Jeffries was honored guest when Charles Hansell, Tom Skillman, F. D. Moore, Bob Ewing and Owen Schmidt attended the Princeton game last Saturday. It is believed Owen's solo turned the tide for Dartmouth.

Charley Smith's going to run an ad before long, maybe along this line: "Specializing in snow and mud. . . . Remember me on New Year's Eve." He drives a wrecker, you know.

Gordon Wunder's sign painter can't get away with spelling "carburetor" without an "e," without this comment at least.

Narberth police arrested quite a few citizens for disorderly conduct last month, but we're nobly refraining from mentioning them in the "Sh-h-h" column, so far. They also nabbed 29 for all-night parking, 13 for "Pike" parking, if you know what we mean, and 3 for "facing wrong," one for being in a "No Parking" zone, 1 for parking double, and 1 for passing a stop sign.

Also, so 'twas reported Monday at Council meeting, they arrested five men for handing out religious papers, Sunday, October 31, in front of a church. Seems they didn't have borough permits to deliver circulars, and the Presbyterian minister hadn't given them permission, either.

The absolute trust Narberth residents show in their officials was shown Monday night. All officialdom was present at Council meeting, except Councilman Harvey Harmon. Messrs. Davis, Durbin, Fretz (president), Kaerber, Wood, Fleer, Fry, Hall, Dold, Noel, Suplee and Wentz, and Mrs. Grace—all were there in public meeting. The public—Count Tristan B. DuMarais.

He was there briefly to sign an agreement whereby Elm Hall can be bought, twelve years hence, by Borough Council for one dollar. . . . Well, it's this way: Borough Council relieves the fire company of its $23,200 mortgage load by leasing Elm Hall for $2,000 a year for twelve years, with option to buy for the amount of the balance remaining at any time, or for $1 after the $24,000 has been paid up. The interest under the new arrangement, incidentally, is 4 per cent, instead of the former six, which means quite a few pennies saved us taxpayers.

SIGEL—KRIEBEL

Before a large gathering of friends, Miss Elizabeth Kriebel, the John S. Kriebels' daughter, of Iona avenue, Narberth, became the bride of Mr. Robert J. Sigel, son of the Albert J. Sigels, Forest avenue, 3 P. M., Saturday, in the Narberth Presbyterian Church, whose pastor emeritus, Dr. John Van Ness, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with a long train and large cap sleeves which ended in tight cuffs. Her tulle veil was finger-tip length. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

Her twin sister, Miss Louise Kriebel, who was maid of honor, wore peach-tone velvet with eggplant velvet trimming, hat and slippers matching. The bridesmaids, Misses Emily Kerigan and Kathleen Wheeler, wore powder-blue velvet with eggplant trim and matching hats and slippers.

Mr. Richard Sigel, the groom's brother, was best man. Another brother, Mr. William Sigel, and Messrs. Murray Patten, Charles Sickles and William Bennett were ushers.

The immediate families attended a reception afterwards at the bride's parents'.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigel will make their home in the Bala Apartments, City Line. She is a graduate of Lower Merion High School and he of Pennsylvania State College. Both, with their families, are longtime residents of Narberth, and well-wished.

Merion Notes

The Walter C. Neelys, Meadow lane, are attending a dinner and theatre party tonight in New York, and the Army-Notre Dame game tomorrow.

Mrs. H. B. Maxwell, Baird road, will have her club for luncheon and bridge next Tuesday.

Mr. Richard Reinhart, the Robert Reinharts' son, of Heath road, came home from Franklin and Marshall last Saturday to attend the Acacia Frat Dance at Penn.

Miss Helen M. Brown, daughter of Mrs. J. Medford Brown, Haywood Circle, will give a luncheon and theatre party on the 20th in honor of Miss Betty Scott Clark, daughter of Mrs. Scott Clark, Springhouse, Wynnewood, whose marriage to Mr. John W. Cullen, son of Mrs. Edward E. Cullen, Jr., will take place November 26 at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr.

The George H. Morrisons, Brook Way, will have as their guests at the annual dinner-dance for the benefit of the Cancer Research Fund of Lankenau Hospital next Friday, the George W. Elkins, Jr., the James R. Downes, Brewster Rhoades and Bruce W. MacDonalds.

The H. B. Frazers, Latches lane, are spending three months in California.

Mrs. J. Wallace Hallowell, Linden lane, will entertain at dinner next Saturday in honor of her guests that week-end, the Shirley C. Morgans. Miss Patricia Hallowell will attend the Harvard-Yale game at Cambridge.

The Book Shelf

The ten best sellers the country wide, in each class, as surveyed last week by the New York Herald-Tribune:

Fiction

"The Citadel," Cronin.
"Northwest Passage," Roberts.
"And So Victoria," Wilkins.
"To Have and Have Not," Hemingway.
"So Great a Man," Pilgrim.
"The Nutmeg Tree," Sharp.
"Gone With the Wind," Mitchell.
"Katrina," Salminen.
"The Seven Who Fled," Prokosh.
"The Rains Came," Bromfield.

Non-Fiction

"How to Win Friends and Influence People," Carnegie.
"The Arts," Van Loon.
"Life With Mother," Day.
"Orchids on Your Budget," Hillis.
"Andrew Jackson," James.
"Four Hundred Million Customers," Crow.
"The Good Society," Lippmann.
"An American Doctor's Odyssey," Heiser.
"How to Lose Friends and Alienate People," Tressler.
"Conversation at Midnight," Millay.
Elmer Rice's "Imperial City" came out this week from Coward-McCann, more than 500 pages of exciting New York, the kind of tale which is easily read and easily forgotten.

Not so easy to forget is "Brother Petros' Return," which carries the one same man from the 16th Century to the 20th and what a grand piece of mysticism that is.

The young ladies should like "Merry, Merry Maidens," Harcourt-Brace, six girls from the public high schools of twenty years ago, and what happened in those twenty years also happened pretty much with the six girls you know from those years ago.

Hemingway's "To Have and Have Not" is selling great guns, which must be because it's Hemingway and for no other reason that a reading of the book will provide.

OUR TOWN can supply all books at publishers' prices, providing special rates when such are possible, and it will help this book column if you do some buying through our office.

Along the Line

Exciting Times in Wayne, as reported by Last Week's "Suburban":

Hallowe'en candalism, which has been steadily on the wane in recent years, made but a desultory reappearance on Friday and Saturday night. Confined principally to North Wayne, it featured the setting of several hedge fires throughout that district; damage to automobiles and lawns and minor injuries to Radnor Township police.

Captain Wilmer N. Clemence, head of the police, paid tribute to the vigilance of his men and the special officers and various organizations who patrolled the township. Especially commended was the Aberdeen Boys' Club whose members did sterling work in preserving law and order and who will be reimbursed by the police for their labor.

While helping fight one of these fires on the Ogden Armstrong and Hendley Apartments properties, on Poplar avenue, Saturday night, Sergeant Howard Detwiler, police fingerprint expert, suffered a severely sprained wrist.

Detwiler noticed the blaze while patrolling on Radnor road. When he arrived, Jason Fenimore was trying to beat out the flames. Detwiler hurried to his assistance and in pursuit of the spreading fire was tripped by a wire which formed part of the hedge and thrown heavily into the road. Besides his physical injury, he lost a $55 wrist watch which was smashed beyond repair.

Hedge fires in this district were numerous and caused considerable financial loss. It is believed they were set by vandals traveling through the area in automobiles. Other "pranks" included the smashing of electric light bulbs with air rifles, and the driving of an automobile across the lawns of the Mecke development on Glen Mary lane.

The valves of an automobile parked at the Wayne P. R. R. Station were cut from the rims on Saturday night.

On Friday night, the windshield of a car belonging to Oliver H. Jackson, manager of Hasco Chevrolet, was smashed while the car was parked in front of Jackson's home. Green paint was poured over the hood and front seat of the machine.

Narberth was quiet on Hallowe'en, thanks to five special officers, and vigilance of the regular police, who nabbed seven boys for marking cars with candles, and a lad who threw a brick through a window, and another, who exploded fire crackers. All were haled before Burgess John R. Hall last Thursday, and let off after a warning. (The brick-thrower's dad paid for the window.)

Hunts Pheasant; Sees Red; Very Pleasant; Fox is Dead

Robert McGee, of 25 Wilmot avenue, Llanerch, went hunting for pheasants last Monday, and although he didn't see one pheasant, bagged a beautiful red fox and also two rabbits.

McGee, a lieutenant in the Brookline Fire Company, and Richard Hopf, of Darby and Decatur roads, Oakmont, who accompanied on the trip, were hunting about nine miles above Downingtown when the fox was bagged. Hearing a rustling in the weeds McGee thought it was a pheasant and got ready to fire but instead he saw a red fox running toward him. The fox turned and started to run away when it was about 40 yards from him. McGee fired, his aim was true and the fox was his.

The fox, which weighed 15 pounds and had an overall length of five feet from head to tail, is now at the taxidermist's, where it will be made into a fur piece.

A redundancy of that noble little black and white feline commonly termed "skunk" has been manifest in Radnor Township.

So frequent have been the public appearances of Papa and Mama Skunk not to mention Baby Brother and Sister that local folk have taken to carrying flashlights and gas masks and to keeping a spare suit of clothes readily on tap at home.

Oddly enough, most outstanding instance of the skunkish invasion was experienced not by a Radnorite, but by Dennis McGettigan, of Philadelphia, who last week was a "stranger within the gates."

McGettigan was railroad station bound at Radnor when he and Bre'r Skunk met face to face. In the encounter, McGettigan did not even come off second best. He was 'way below that; so far below that he was utterly ostracized on the train to the city, absolutely forbidden the freedom of a trolley car, ejected from a subway, refused admission to City Hall and finally driven home—under protest from the driver—in a taxi Chevrolet's Master models for 1938 are designed and built for owners who seek to practice thrift without compromise on completeness. To such buyers the Master Chevrolet is presented as embodying in fullest measure those qualities which Chevrolet's extensive public contacts indicate that modern motorists demand in their cars. Performance, economy and comfort are carried to new heights in these models, without sacrifice of beauty or style. The cars are as roomy as the Master DeLuxe series; they are powered by the same eighty-five horsepower, six-cylinder, valve-in-head engine, and they offer the year's outstanding engineering advance, the new "Tiptoe-matic" Chevrolet clutch.

Malcolm J. Rowe, son of the Harry A. Rowes, of 505 Old Gulph, has been appointed a member of the Chapel Choir at Mercersburg Academy. He is also a member of the swimming team and the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet.

James C. Shea, the Edward F. Shea's son, 101 Dudley, is a first year student in pharmacy at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science.

S. Parker Woolmington, of Narbrook Park, a junior at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois, is making an eastern trip with the soccer team of that college. A very hard schedule has been arranged, considering 2000 miles of travel required in ten days: November 20, West Chester State Teachers' College at West Chester; 23rd, Army at West Point; 24th, St. Johns University, Brooklyn; 25th, Princeton University; 27th, Oberlin College, Ohio.

Soccer at Wheaton College presents an international aspect; on the squad are players from Scotland, Korea, Ireland, China, Japan, Irak, India, Canada and Egypt. Last year they defeated the former national champions, the Swedish-American Club of Rockford, Ill., finishing the season unbeaten. An innovation this year has been the playing at night under lights at Chicago.

Woolmington, who is a graduate of Lower Merion High, class of 1935, will be remembered as a soccer player on L. M.'s teams of 1933, '34 and '35, as well on the baseball nine. A singular thing is the fact that two of his present teammates, Ed. McClausland, a former Upper Darby High player, and Eugene Vickers, a former Haverford High player, were both opponents while he was playing for L. M.

Woolmington is also a letter-man for two years in baseball.

Fine Cast Will Give "Love's But a Dance"

An excellent cast will present the amusing play, "Love's But a Dance," which will be presented next Friday evening by the Junior Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd.

Directed by Miss Glen Macan, well-known in Bala-Cynwyd as an actress and director, the plot is most unusual, creating a gripping drama which holds the interest of the audience till the last word is spoken.

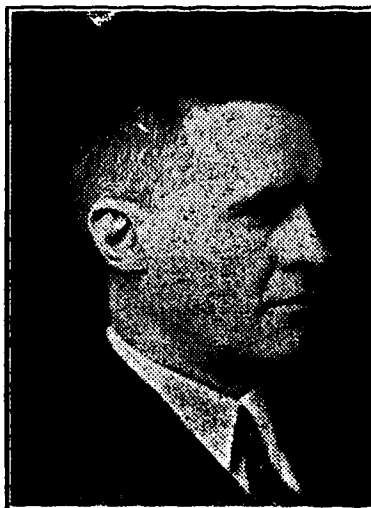

The cast includes popular favorites from past successes and some very promising new talent. Helen Weatherall, who appeared in "The Brat" and "The Show is Off" and who is active in the Narberth Players, portrays the lovely leading lady, "Imogene." Playing opposite her as the hero is Crozier Ludlow, new to Main Line productions, but with four years with "Mask and Wig" productions.

In the role of the haughty, power-seeking "Iras," Ruth Reich makes an impressive first appearance, while George Werner, of the Narberth Players; Ben Grim, active in local groups, and George Kimball, who has acted in and directed many recent plays—all make their bows to Bala-Cynwyd audiences.

Arthur and Marion McVickar, partly responsible for the success of nearly every junior show for the past few years, are joined by their brother, Paul, in this production.

Junior Auxiliary of St. Luke's and the Children's Homeopathic Hospital will meet 10.30 A. M. Monday at Mrs. George Ouerbacker's, 306 Kent road, Wynnewood. Mrs. Arthur Osborne Roberts, Ardmore, president, will preside. Luncheon will be served.

Diamond Brooch Stolen From Merion Apartment

A diamond brooch, valued at over $1000, was taken from the bedroom of a second floor apartment, occupied by Mrs. J. H. Emack, at the York-Lynne Manor Apartments, City Line, Merion, last Friday night.

Mrs. Emack was seated in the living room when she heard a noise in the bedroom. Investigating, she found the room in disorder and the thief gone. In addition to the brooch, $7 was taken from a wallet, which was later found discarded on the rear steps.

and have ascertained that there are 1210 residences from which ashes and rubbish must be removed every week in the winter season, but that among them there are 344 now equipped with gas or oil burners. Also, it is clearly apparent that the installation of oil burners is steadily increasing, which brings about a proportionate reduction in the amount of ashes to be removed. It is obvious from this situation that the bulk and weight of material which it is necessary for the Borough laborers to handle is being steadily reduced.

"There is nothing to indicate that there has been any increase of private incinerators in the Borough and the use of open incinerators in the yards of residences should not be encouraged. Probably the volume of rubbish, per residence, is running about the same as for many years past.

"It was recalled by this committee that in December, 1930, the Borough advertised for bids for the collection of trash and ashes by private collectors and the record of those bids indicates that the cost of doing this work by private contractors might be very close to what it is costing the Borough at present.

"We recommend, therefore, that this committee should be instructed to continue the investigation of this subject because, if the petition of our laborers should be granted, we would be confronted by the inconsistent fact of increasing costs with decreasing bulk.

"We recommend, also, that this committee be authorized to advertise for bids for the collection of all of the Borough ashes and rubbish by private contractors and that these proposals be offered for contracts covering one year and three years, with the proviso that the Borough would have the right to reject all bids.

"We recommend that the Ordinance and Law Committee be requested to prepare and submit to Council, as soon as possible, an ordinance similar to the one now in effect in the township governing the installation of oil burners.

"In this connection, we recommend that Mr. Suplee should be instructed to tell the Borough laborers that their petition is being given very thoughtful consideration; that it is the desire and intention of Council to deal fairly and generously with all of its laborers, just the same as has always been done in the past, and especially during the long years of the depression when we were frequently subjected to great pressure to distribute those jobs among other citizens of the Borough.

In the Schools

On November 12, Narberth School will celebrate American Education Week. During this one day which the school has set aside, the parents are invited to visit the classrooms and see the type of work their children are doing.

The parents have been sent written invitations made by the children, inviting them to attend.

Hockey games are still being played by the girls of the seventh and eighth grades. The first game the Grays won, but the next four were won by the Reds.

Last week, on November 5, the most exciting game so far this season was played. During the first quarter each of the teams made a goal. The ball traveled from one end of the field to the other during the second and third quarters, but at the beginning of the last quarter the Reds scored a goal and just as the whistle blew to end the game, the Grays tied the score, making it 2-2.

In celebrating Book Week this year the Library Club is planning something new and different. Three girls have been selected to jumble up the words of each title. The students will rearrange the word to form the title of a well known book. There will be twenty-five of these. It will be announced later when this contest shall begin and end.

ELEANOR HAYWOOD,
Student Reporter

Mr. Lehman, who teaches at the Narberth Public School, left the school on November 2 with a bad cold. He is now at the Bryn Mawr Hospital, threatened with pneumonia. We all hope he will get better soon. Mrs. Merrill, who used to teach the Third grade, took his place last week.

On November 4 the Narberth School played Montgomery Day School in an exciting football game. Narberth made the first point in the first quarter. Then Montgomery Day made a point in the second quarter, making the score 6-6. Not very much happened during the third and the beginning of the fourth quarter. Harry Middleton, who played quarterback, attempted several passes, but they were grounded. In the last 10 seconds to play he made a pass to Grier Heindel, the captain of the team, who miraculously caught it for a 13-6 victory.

On November 5 the assembly at the Narberth School was an Armistice Day program. Betty Hollar read the Scripture. Mr. Frye, of the American Legion of Narberth, who spoke on previous occasions, spoke to the school body. After his talk the pupils finished the program by singing a few songs.

Mrs. Huber Will Preside

The annual convention of the State Council of Republican Women will open at Harrisburg on November 17 and continue in session until the 19th at the Penn Harris Hotel.

Lower Merion will take a prominent place in the State conclave. Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., president of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council, will preside at the President's Dinner, which will be held on the opening evening.

Mrs. Huber has arranged a very unique program, which should be an outstanding feature of the convention. With apologies to Noel Coward, Mrs. Huber will present "A Cavalcade of Women in Politics."

Coached by Walter Case, the St. Margaret's Minstrels will give their ninth show. Sunday afternoon for children and 8.45 P. M. Monday and Tuesday for adults, at the Parish House.

property values. Trucks bound for the dump, it was testified, dropped rubbish along the road.

Witnesses called by the township included Evan L. James, Lower Merion secretary, and two photographers, Richard Gallin, of Yeadon, and Harry D. Richards, of Ardmore; also Francis F. Friel, engineer for the specifications.

Attorneys aiding Mr. MacCoy in the township's defense were James M. Brittain, township solicitor, and John E. Forsythe, his assistant; also James Herbert Egan. Aaron S. Swartz, Jr., represented the complainants.

Township officialdom, headed by Julius Zieget, president of the Board of Commissioners, and Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion treasurer, was well represented among the spectators who also included several prominent residents from the Penn Valley section. H. R. Dickens Co., Philadelphia, at a bid of $94,885, has the contract for construction of the incinerator.

Time Out

Lower Merion is fifty-fifty right now with three losses, three victories and one tie game on the records. Upper Darby will be met away from home tomorrow and Radnor will follow the week after at Villanova.

Upper Darby has her best team in many, many years, and unless Lower Merion bounces like a rubber ball, the Lansdowne Avenue laddies will take the locals for another ride. The Maroon has the strength to win and I believe that they will feel so ashamed of dropping an unnecessary victory into Norristown's lap last week that they will redeem themselves partially by defeating the Uplands.

Norristown has a well-drilled, fine-looking, tough fighting outfit this year, but Lower Merion was a real host in permitting Lewis' lads to walk off of the Villanova sod a victor. A little punch in the third quarter would have given the locals another touch-down and certain victory, but our boys lost something that was necessary on Norristown's two-yard line, with first down and goal to go. From then on it was Norristown's game.

It's been many a moon since a Lower Merion team has had the ball on an opponent's two-yard line with four downs to put it over and failed.

Lower Merion Junior High School hasn't been football news for the past eight years because all they have done is to win ball games. Dick Mattis has been the Leopard's coach for the past eight years, and not until last Friday has one of his teams been defeated by a Suburban Junior High School. Haverford Junior High turned the trick on Pennypacker Field, and to be fair, the boys from South Ardmore deserved the victory, by the score of 6 to 0.

Mattis has had teams that have tied some half a dozen times over the period, but Edison, of Haverford, and Haverford, are the only Junior High Schools that have ever tied victory over the Orange and Blue.

So this week, Lower Merion Junior High is in the news.

Last week this column went normal and picked some seven teams to win. All seven lost. I'm still sticking to Penn though, and here goes the thought that Michigan will find the Red and Blue too strong for them in the turf is dry and Harman can muster his full strength.

Why is it that we consider Penn such a rotten team unless they win all of their games? Notre Dame is rated as one of the strongest teams in the country. They can't boast of more than a couple of victories. Carnegie Tech has won only two and everybody raves about their strength. Navy lost to Penn and Notre Dame and their team is respected. I guess it's just because Penn is so close to home. Anyway a couple of victories over Michigan and Cornell will stabilize the market around here and muzzle the vicious attacks of some of the has-beens who have turned to sport comment for pocket change.

Asks Care for Christmas Greens; Announce Contest

Mrs. William Kurtz Myers, president of the Garden Club of Bala-Cynwyd, asked the Penn Valley Garden Club Monday at Mrs. Earl G. Wagner's, to help conserve Christmas greens. She said two native plants, holly and mountain laurel, used for Christmas decorations, are in danger of extermination, due to the ruthlessness of people who tear and cut them to pieces when gathering them. Conservation Committees of the clubs are asking people to buy tagged holly and laurel for their decorations, or at least to inspect it to see if it has been cut carefully, as this is less harmful than tearing.

A Red Cross Roll Call speaker also gave a talk.

Next meeting of the club, December 13, there will be a Christmas dinner arrangement contest for the members. The arrangement must be made without the use of holly or laurel. The place will be announced later.

Election District is Merion Civic Association Decrees

Merion Park residents do not live in Merion, regardless of telephone numbers and post office address.

So decided the Merion Civic Association at a board meeting Monday night.

According to the directors Merion is the Merion election district, bounded by City Line avenue, East Wynnewood road, Rockland avenue, Pennsylvania Railroad, North Narberth avenue, Haverford avenue, Montgomery avenue and Old Lancaster road.

Part of the above district, west of Bowman avenue, has either or both Narberth telephone numbers and post office delivery.

How to Remove Heaped Leaves from Roads is Solved--Use Snow Plough!

How a little ingenuity solved a fall problem is told in the report rendered by Robert Fellows Wood, Highway Committee chairman, at Narberth Council meeting Monday:

"The county's work on Berkeley road is now all completed, except for laying the top surface. That will be done as soon as there has been a rainfall sufficient to wet down the present surface in order to provide good adherence for the top dressing."

"During the month of October the Highway Department spent $721.37, all of it for labor. The largest single item was $533.64, the cost of collecting 145 cubic yards of ashes and 752 cubic yards of trash. Regular street cleaning expense of the month amounted to $161.61 and the special street cleaning, which is done on Sundays in the two business sections, cost $17.22.

"During this time of the year street cleaning expense always advances owing to the necessity of removing leaves from the street, and the expense is further increased by the regrettable practice of many citizens who rake the leaves from their properties into the street gutters. It was at first thought by the Superintendent of Public Works that it would be necessary this year to hire two extra men for removing the leaves, but he later discovered that by using the snow plows to scoop the leaves out of the gutters, toward the center of the streets, that work was greatly facilitated without any additional expense."

Tommy Loughran, retired undefeated light heavyweight champion, and Jimmy D'Angelo, golf pro at Baedewood Golf Club, will give interesting accounts of their successes.

Mrs. E. J. Pollock, Program chairman, will introduce the speakers. They will be welcomed by Mrs. E. W. Heymann, club president, and the Hospitality Committee, Mrs. R. C. Heath, chairman. Following the program the guests will be seated at a U-shaped table decorated with autumn fruits and leaves, and sandwiches, cakes, coffee and cigarettes will be served.

Thirty members attended the Literature and International Relations group meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. C. Middleton, Jr. Mrs. A. C. Muller was co-hostess. Japan's justification for her "punitive expedition" into China, as Japan sees it, was explained by Mrs. C. E. Starr, associate chairman of the group in charge of International Relations. "Japan, resenting the fact that white nations have taken slices of China, feels that Asia should be for Asiatics, and that as the superior race she should dominate. Also, the Japanese army, unpopular at home, realizes it must increase its power now or never," said Mrs. Starr.

"Paradise," a historical novel of seventeenth century Massachusetts, by Esther Forbes, was reviewed by Mrs. E. A. Jamison. Mrs. Joseph Gurbarg, chairman of the group, announced that the next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. B. Doty, 227 North Narberth avenue, November 23, with Mrs. William Durbin and Mrs. C. W. ## AWARD TO DOLD tificate was due to be handed him by Frank A. Schrepfer, former commander of the Post, newly elected borough councilman, and distinguished leader of the Order of the Purple Heart.

The Citation:

"For conspicuous and outstanding service to the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, of the American Legion, and the borough of Narberth, Edwin P. Dold, a veteran of the Spanish-American War in the Sixth Pennsylvania Volunteers.

"Mr. Dold has been a consistent and generous supporter of the Harold D. Speakman Post since the founding of the post. He has given his moral and financial support to all of the undertakings of the post. As a public official, he has had the courage to defend the post's program in the face of organized opposition. When propagandists attacked the proposal for the creation of a Narberth Community War Memorial, Mr. Dold in public meeting sponsored the post's program and later made a generous contribution. This in spite of the fact that as a holder of an elective position he was subject to and aware of having reprisals.

"Since 1912, Mr. Dold has served the community continuously, as councilman, borough treasurer, and borough tax collector. He has been a generous contributor to borough charities and community enterprises. His record as a public official is most commendable. In every respect, Mr. Dold has been a credit to his community and a friend of the American Legion."

Former recipients of the award, and invited guests at the banquet were, John J. Cabrey, LeRoy A. King and Carl B. Metzger. Speaker of the evening was Congressman J. William Ditter.

Narberth Bridge Club Scores:

$1,000,000 Drive Now at 30 P. C.; All Work Voluntary, Says Pew

Bryn Mawr Hospital's $1,000,000 Campaign rested at the 30 per cent mark this week-end with the deadline for the Men's and Women's Committees set for Wednesday.

While two-thirds of the sum still remains to be collected, Arthur E. Pew, Jr., executive chairman of the "pay-the-mortgage" drive was not perturbed.

Mr. Pew said he expected the Women's Committee, which has netted around $80,000 in contributions ranging upwards from 15 cents, would finish with a smashing climax. The men fall in the same category, he said. This week Mr. Pew issued this statement:

"It has come to my attention that many Main Liners are under the impression that a professional collection agency is in charge of raising our money in the Bryn Mawr Hospital's $1,000,000 Campaign.

Alumni to Dine

The Philadelphia Alumni Association of the University of Washington, will dine Saturday at the home of Lieutenant-Commander Roland Mayer, U. S. N., and Mrs. Mayer, Drexel Hill. Mrs. Alfred L. Baker, Wynnewood, is president. Main Liners among the forty or so guests will be Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Russell S. Callow, Cynwyd; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Dunaway, Ardmore, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nafe, Haverford.

"Nothing could be less true. There are absolutely no commissions being paid and with the exception of a necessary small percentage, every cent contributed will go to the hospital.

"At present there are 1500 workers—1100 women and 400 men—who by personal, voluntary and free solicitation are bringing in the money which we need to clear the hospital of its $1,000,000 mortgage.

"In making plans for the drive, $25,000 was set aside by the committee to cover expenses. That figure was to be the absolute top. We are holding expenses considerably below this."

PRINTERS TO THE MAIN LINE

No printing firm in this section has grown so rapidly as The Merion Press in the past three years. Perhaps our motto has had something to do with this:

Printing as you wish it to be done
—delivered when you request it—at the price you expect to pay.
